

FAQ Number: 1368

Date Published: June 30, 2010

Last Updated: June 14, 2011

Question: Are CFATS background checks required for emergency responders prior to access to restricted areas or critical assets during emergency situations?

Answer:

No. During emergency situations, 6 CFR 27.230(a)(12) does not require CFATS background checks on emergency responders at the state or local level that gain unescorted access to restricted areas or critical assets.